

Thanks

To the citizens of Wasatch County, I express my appreciation for your support. I am very happy and excited for the opportunity to serve as the County assessor. I express my thanks to all of you for your votes and your confidence in me. A special thanks to all who helped in any way with my campaign.

Charles Negus Carroll was a convert to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and emigrated to Utah in the year 1854 from New Brunswick, Canada. He was president of the South Hampton Branch of the Church. In that capacity, he led a group of 57 converts as far as Fort Leavenworth where they joined a group in preparation for crossing the plains. An epidemic of cholera was raging in camp, and Charles' wife and three youngest children were among the fatalities. His oldest son, Willard, barely escaped.

Their first year in Utah was spent in Farmington and Salt Lake City, then they moved to Provo, recent immigrants from England. Their first two children were born in Provo. When the youngest was three weeks old, they moved to Heber, being among the first few families to do so. They endured the privations and strenuous labor typical of pioneer life. The house they built contained three rooms, a hall, and a summer kitchen. It was their home for 20 years, and in it their next 10 children were born. Father was an expert farmer and soon added a few sheep and cattle to his possessions.

In May 1868, he moved to Orderville, much more enthusiastic about joining the United Order than was his wife. Charles was soon made foreman of one of the farms and elected a member of the governing board. All the older members of the family were put to work, Kezia and Willard teaching school, as they did in Heber. Also as in Heber, Charles was appointed Justice of the Peace and was prominent in civic, social and church activities, working on boards and committees of various kinds, promoting the public welfare. Following in his footsteps, his family have all been prominent and civic leaders, in executive and teaching capacities in Ward and Stake auxiliary organizations.

After the United Order was dissolved, Charles moved to a large farm house a mile from town to be near his several pieces of land. In this home, his wife found a full measure of contentment, happiness and prosperity. She was kind and gentle by nature and an expert homemaker.

Charles and two of his sons were Patriarchs, two served on missions, one was a Bishop, and one a member of the Stake Presidency. Charles lived to be eighty-four years old, and his wife eighty-seven.

Kezia Giles Carroll, born May 20, 1840, at Brozholm, Lincolnshire, England, daughter of William and Sarah Huskinson Giles. Died June 13, 1927. Married Charles N. Carroll.

Children: Kezia Ann, Charles William, Lucy Elizabeth, Sarah Jane, Mary Lovina, Emma Isabella, Frederick Giles, George Franklin, Irene, Edward, Eleanor, Julia May, Amelia and Amy.

Ernest T. Bate was clerk. This bishopric served until Nov. 7, 1904 when John M. Ritchie was called as the third bishop. His counselors were George W. Daybell and J. Parley Edwards. Elder Bate continued as clerk. In 1906 John O. Edwards was called as second counselor with George J. Harbour as clerk. This group served until Feb. 24, 1918 when J. Parley Edwards was sustained as first counselor to Bishop Ritchie with Moroni Winterton as second counselor. William H. Henline was sustained as clerk. Stephen A. Simmons became first counselor on March 11, 1923 and Wayne C. Whiting was sustained as second counselor. Elder Henline continued as clerk.

Bishop Ritchie and his counselors continued their service until Feb. 16, 1936, and with the release of Bishop Ritchie came to close 32 years of valiant service to the Church.

Wayne C. Whiting was sustained as the next bishop, and he chose as his counselors Heber R. Winterton and P. Clyde Ritchie. Elder Henline again was called as ward clerk, and served faithfully until Sept. 26, 1943 when Glen L. Farnsworth was sustained as clerk. H. Fred Price became second counselor on March 3, 1944, and on Sept. 15, 1946 when Bishop Whiting was released, became the new bishop. Counselors to Bishop Price were Jack I. Carlson and Valeo J. Winterton. H. Grant Flygare was sustained as clerk. Douglas Edwards became second counselor to Bishop Price on May 27, 1953.

The present Bishop, Eldon D. Wright was called to serve on July 14, 1957. His counselors are Douglas Edwards and H. Grant Flygare. Clerks have been LaVon Simmons, L. Warren Farnsworth and Grant J. Webster.

Elder John Watkins had helped build the first brick chapel in Charleston in 1873, and this served the people for more than 20 years. During the 1890's, the building became inadequate, and a stone building that had been used as an amusement and dance hall was donated to the Church. The dance hall had been built in 1891 by the Mutual Improvement Associations of Charleston at a cost of $4,500, and was the largest and best equipped social center in the valley. With some remodeling through the years, this building served the Charleston Ward for more than half a century.

During one of the most severe winters in the valley, the chapel caught fire on Jan. 19, 1949. The snow was so deep and the ice so thick on the canal that it was impossible to get water to fight the blaze. So, the members of the ward had to stand and watch their building be completely destroyed by fire.

However, all was not lost, for the members of the ward under Bishop H. Fred Price rallied to the challenge and soon had a new chapel underway at a site two blocks north and one block east of the old building. It was completed, paid for and dedicated by Elder Mark E. Petersen of the Council of the Twelve on Feb. 18, 1951, just about two years after the old structure had been destroyed.

GEORGE GILES AND MARY
GREENWOOD GILES

George Giles was born May 19, 1823, in Lincolnshire, England, and died July 22, 1898, son of William Giles and Sarah Huskinson.

George Giles married Mary Greenwood on March 24, 1823, in Lincolnshire, England. She died March 25, 1913.

Children: Thomas Greenwood (Rachel Cummings), Heber John (Susie Witt), Mary Elizabeth (Joseph Moulton), and Charles (Grace Aird).

These people were born and raised in England. They came across the plains in August, 1856, settling in Provo. In the spring of 1860 they moved to Heber, Utah, where they lived in the fort and later built a nice brick house on Third North and Main Street.

Mr. Giles was a blacksmith by trade. He made plow points, etc., and was exceptionally good at his trade, having had several years apprenticeship in England. His shop was just south of his home and was built of logs. He was affectionately called "Uncle George Blacksmith." His home is now owned by a granddaughter, Mrs. Pearl Giles Forman.

THOMAS HUSKINSON GILES

Thomas Huskinson Giles was born August 6, 1821, in Bridgeford, Nottingham, England, son of William Giles and Sarah Huskinson.

He married Elizabeth Susanna Moore February 13, 1845, who was born January 21, 1812, in Epworth, Lincolnshire, England, daughter of Thomas Moore. She died January 2, 1888.

Thomas had a very good education and after completing his schooling he worked in the brick and tile yards in England.

In 1849 his wife's sister interested them in the doctrines of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They joined the Church and left England for the United States on March 5, 1854, arriving at New Orleans on April 25, 1854.

They lived in Quincy, Illinois, two years and in the spring of 1856 left there for Florence, Neb., the regular point for crossing the plains. On June 5, 1856, they started for Salt Lake City, arriving August 16. On the 18th of August they left for Provo, Utah.

Thomas soon began to make adobes to build his home, also for others to build with. He made 60,000 bricks the first year.

In 1857 he went to Echo Canyon to help keep Johnston's Army from coming into Salt Lake Valley.

In 1860 he moved to Heber and planted his grain and vegetables for the coming winter, and built fences, dug ditches and built a home.

He was the first Sunday School superintendent in Wasatch County. In 1868 he was made a counselor to Bishop Hatch and later, in 1877, was made counselor to Stake President Hatch. He was also county assessor and collector of taxes, probate judge, and a member of the Legislature. He was ordained a patriarch for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1898.

He and his wife reared a good and honorable family.

ELIZABETH SUSANNA MOORE GILES

Her early life was one of many hardships. She had to help her father support the family, working in factories and in families of royalty who entertained very often.

They lived in Bridgeford until the spring of 1854, when they and their five children left England to come to the United States. They settled in Quincy, Illinois, and another child was born to them there on the 16th of September.

In the spring of 1857 they left Illinois with an independent company for Salt Lake City, arriving August 16. Then, on the 18th, they left for Provo, where they made their home until 1859, when they moved to Heber City, Wasatch County.

She was a real pioneer, a good Latter-day Saint and a good mother. She was loved by all who knew her.

When she died she left a husband and six children. She was buried in Heber Cemetery.
